

In The United States District Court
For The District of Delaware

William Joseph Webb Jr.,

Plaintiff,

v.

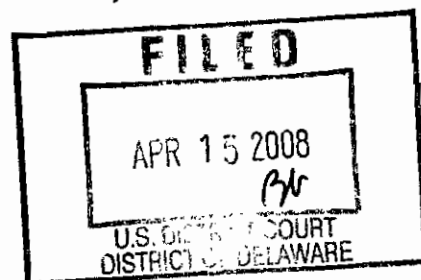

First Correctional Medical,

Etc. Al.,

Defendants.

Civ. Act. No. : 07-31-GMS

Jury Trial Requested

Motion for Default Judgment Against Defendant "FCM"

(First Correctional Medical).

(Pursuant to Fed. R. of Civ. Proc. Rule 55-)

Comes now, Plaintiff, William Joseph Webb Jr. in presenting His Motion to be heard at the Court's earliest convenience, and in support thereof offering the following:

i. In a recent Court Order, the Court granted Plaintiff's Motion to Reinstate "FCM", and ordered them to answer by March 1, 2008. Therefore, "FCM" has failed to defend itself in which would allow for the entry of default.

2. Plaintiff is filing this Motion in good faith and in good cause that it should be granted.

Relief: Compensatory damages the costs of the testing deprived; Punitive damages in the amount of $3,000,000.00 equaling to $1,000,000.00 per claim against this Defendant; Court Costs; and any relief the Court deems appropriate.

Therefore, Plaintiff, William Joseph Webb Jr. requests the Court to grant His request for entry & default judgment and order the U.S. Marshall's Office to seize the U.S. Currency requested.
